by the school. A fine program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered and much enjoyed by the friends of the performers.

The senior promenade will be given Thursday evening in Bertrand's hall.

Immediately following the graduation exercises on Thursday morning will be held the Alumni reunion and luncheon in the Auditorium of the Academy to which all alumni and friends of the Academy will be welcome. Tickets for this luncheon are now being sold and if you have not had an opportunity to purchase one, you may do so today at Charles E. Peck, Dr. William G. Rieker, or Harry H. Carr. Never has a more attractive program been offered at an Alumni reunion. President J. M. Thomas of Middlebury College and Edwin A. Bayley of the class of '81 will speak.

These teachers will not return to the Academy next year, Eleanor A. Deyan, teacher of Latin, Percy C. Judd, teacher of elementary and higher mathematics and Mary R. Kelley, teacher of arts and crafts. No announcement of their successors has been made.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

Aaron H. Grout of Newport Delivered Address Before The Veterans

Nature smiled on the loyal sons of America on Decoration Day and the sun shone brightly as the parade was formed on Railroad street at 1.30 sharp under the general direction of Major Tinker. It was headed by the St. Johnsbury Consolidated band and a platoon of police, then came Palestine company, No. 5 K. T. Masons, commanded by E. A. Silsby; Canton Crescent Lodge No. 21, O. O. F. commanded by William Cheney; the boy scouts; Champlain Guards, F. G. Landry, commander; Company D Vermont National Guard, Captain W. A. Wilcox; Grand Army of the Republic. The Guards were a special escort for the old soldiers, some of whom rode in carriages or automobiles. The President of the day, Captain L. W. Fisher and the Orator of the day, Aaron Grout of Newport, completed the procession. The order of march was up Eastern avenue to Main street, thence to Church street, out to Summer street to the Union School buildings where the school children had their exercises. The members of Grades 1, 11 and 14 marched out from the school building carrying flags. They sang two patriotic songs. Then some of the little people of the fourth grade had a flag drill which was very pretty.

The parade again formed and marched to Mt. Pleasant street, down to Main street and thence to the Soldier's monument at Court House square. The usual exercises of decorating the monument with flowers were then carried out. The line then reformed and proceeded to the Colonial where the parade was dismissed. The first number on the program in the Colonial was a selection by the band. Prayer was then offered by the Rev. F. B. Richards. Sterry Waterman read General Logan's order which established Memorial day, and Miss Bernice Lambert gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The president of the day, Captain L. W. Fisher then introduced the orator of the day, Aaron Grout of Newport, whom he explained was the substitute furnished by J. Rolf Searles who was unable to speak as he had planned. Mr. Grout proved an able substitute and gave a very fine address in a clear and forceful manner. He spoke of the patriotism and loyalty of the old soldiers and pointed out some of the things that they had accomplished. He emphasized the fact that the effects of the war were so soon abolished, that everyone was willing to return to work and peace. His delivery was excellent. The program closed with the singing of "America" by the audience with music by the band.

Mrs. George Wright and son Vern are camping at Joe's pond. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brightey spent Saturday at Partridge lake. Henry Ellis is enjoying a week's vacation at Averill lake, Me.

Mrs. John Durgin and two children are at her home in Exeter, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whitney have returned from a visit in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Metcalf, Mose Craig and Arnold Carr went to Wheelock, Wednesday to attend the funeral of Arch Craig.

Wall Papers and Light.

"The good lighting of a room depends not only on the disposition of the lights so as to produce an adequate illumination and on the proper shielding of the lamps so as to avoid needless glare, but on the nature of the wall surface on which the light falls," said Professor Silvanus Thompson of London. "Even when the illumination that is received by the walls is ample the room may be badly lit if the walls absorb too much of that illumination instead of giving it back by diffuse reflection. Few people are aware how much light is thus wasted and thrown away."

"The deep scarlet and crimson wall papers now fashionable for dining rooms waste from 70 to 75 per cent; brown paper wastes about 85 to 88 per cent; even an ordinary yellow or buff wall paper wastes 50 to 60 per cent. On the other hand, white cartridge paper absorbs and wastes only about 20 per cent of the light, while a whitewashed wall absorbs from 30 to 40 per cent."

Thumbs of the Apes.

The gorilla and chimpanzee, which belong to the higher order of apes, have many points of resemblance to man, but there is one thing they cannot do—that is, twiddle their thumbs. In the gorilla the thumb is short and does not reach much beyond the bottom of the first joint of the forefinger. It is very much restricted in its movements, and the animal can neither twiddle his thumbs nor turn them round so that the tips describe a circle. There are the same number of bones in the hand of a gorilla as in the hand of a man, but the thumbs of the monkey have no separate flexor or bending muscle. This is why a monkey always keeps the thumb on the same side as the fingers and never bends it round any object that may be grasped. In the gorilla the web between the fingers extends to the second joint, the fingers taper to the tips, and there is a callous on the knuckles on which the animal rests when walking on all fours.

History in July.

In at least four countries perhaps the most important event in their histories was recorded in July—namely, the establishment of their independence. In our own history we have the memorable Fourth of July, while the patriotic efforts of the liberator Simon Bolivar for the independence of Venezuela were consummated on July 5, Colombia ridding herself of the Spanish yoke on July 20. Then there is France, with her July 14, marking the date when the suffering French people stormed the famed and impregnable Bastille. The Spanish nation, some Basille. The Spanish nation, some Basille. The Spanish nation, some Basille.
